So sorry for the loss of this beautiful soul. There aren't enough words in the English language to describe Carolyn. I met her through my mother, Melba Cochran, who loved her as if she was family. They were more than friends. Sometimes they were like sisters, going to yard sales, estate sales, trips to the smokies, etc. Sometimes it was like a mother-daughter relationship. Mama made and took Carolyn to Dr appts, etc., but ALWAYS it was a loving relationship on both their parts. My mother will be so lost without this special woman. I know ya'll will be too. So sorry for your loss.
