“ Carolyn was one of my best and dearest friend. She was like a sister to me. We used to stay up late at night doing things on the computer, making greeting cards, pictures, and etc. when our husbands both work third shift. We had so much fun. We were both night owl's. I will never forget the fun things we used to do. Carolyn loved to cook. We used to get together and cook dinner for our husbands,too. She loved kids and was always doing things for all the kids. Carolyn was the most caring person I know and she will be deeply missed by everyone.
