“ Cary “Uncle Care-Care” was a great friend that we loved very much and he will be missed by all of us. I couldn’t have had a better friend. He was always there for us when we needed help, that’s just the way he was. He left us way too early and we don’t know why God chose to take him so soon. His ways are not our ways, but we know that all things work together for good to those who love God, to those who are the called according to His purpose (Romans 8:28). We have the blessed assurance, through Christ Jesus, that we will see him again.

God bless you man! I'll see you later.....either at the second coming of Jesus Christ or at my own appointed time.....whichever comes first.

“ My prayers are with you at this time. I had the pleasure of working side by side with Cary. He was a good man and a good medic. We shared a lot of stressful situations as medics. Cary was very professional and it was very clear he loved his job . May he rest in peace and may his family find peace in the knowledge that Cary is resting with the Lord.

“ Rick: I am so sorry for your loss. Each time I think of Cary I remember the Renaissance Festival and him walking around with his cape and mask. That really was a fun day! May you find comfort in the shelter of God's love during this difficult time.

“ I know Cary from church and counted him as a brother in Christ and a dear friend. Cary was always looking after folks at church. If they fell or got sick, he was right there to help them. I know that he also donated his time and expertise as a EMT at out of town youth conferences for years. He is now healed and not in pain and sees Jesus in his full Glory. Thanks to our Lord's saving grace, we will see him again some day. I will miss you brother.

“ You were the best friend that my husband could have ever had. When God called you home, it was so hard on him but we know you are not in pain anymore. You took care of so much and asked for so little. It was a honor to call you friend. You are with your loved ones that you had to let go now. Be at peace my friend. We will meet you again.
