

Catherine "Cathy" Martin Gadd

November 30, 1953 - August 30, 2024

Catherine "Cathy" Martin Gadd, passed away on August 30, 2024 after a short battle with pancreatic cancer. Cathy is survived by her husband, of 24 years, Roy Gadd; daughter, Lisa Porter; grandchild, Mia Porter; step children, Emily (Charlie) Brooks and Sam Gadd; and grandchild, Lily Brooks.

Cathy was a proud Navy Veteran, serving six years in Guam, before coming stateside and working for the National Security Agency.

Cathy loved Chickamauga and living here, she would often say "Why would anyone want to live elsewhere?" While working with Roy on various church history projects, it only deepened her love for the town, church, and its residents.

Cathy loved the beach and ocean, her favorite spot was Daytona Beach, where you can drive on the beach and get the feel of "Old Florida."

Cathy was a member of Elizabeth Lee Methodist church, active in many areas of ministry, especially the Sunday Schol Department, the Handbell Choir, and keeping track of the history of Elizabeth Lee Methodist Church.

The funeral service will be held at 12:00 pm on Thursday, September 5, 2024 at Elizabeth Lee Methodist Church, with Min. Zach Fitzpatrick officiating.

Interment will follow in the Chickamauga City Cemetery. The family will receive friends from 10:00 am until the service time at the church. In lieu of flowers please consider making memorial gifts to Elizabeth Lee Capital Campaign Building Fund or Elizabeth Lee Trust Fund. Arrangements by Wilson Funeral Home-J. “ Cathy was one of kind .. as I got to know her at church, she was always helping the church, helping with the 5th quarter, Sunday School, the bell choir, and the history of Elizabeth Lee Methodist Church. She always had smile on her face ..I'm going to miss her at church and seeing her in Chickamauga. She always waved and smiled at you !!! Fly high Miss Cathy. I didn't know she was in the Navy, I wish I could have talked to her about that . If she would talk about. Beaver Merritt

Roy, I send my heartfelt condolences to you and your family in the "homegoing" of your precious wife. I met Cathy only once in August 2023, but she was kind and so personable. My prayers are that the Lord envelope you with His presence giving you strength and wonderful memories for the days ahead. Lifting you up in prayer, my lifelong friend, Roy. 🙏 Billy Brooks
