“ I loved Nana as if she were my own, more than a mother-in-law. Because of circumstances I was not able to control and forced to make life changing decisions, I had to live in my own Hell so others would not have to. I will always remember the first time I met her. I had been injured and needed to be woke up every 2 hours because of a concussion. They come to my dad's where I lived. TP jumps out my bedroom window and Mike was woken by my dad knocking on my door. They had both been asleep on top of the covers and me under. That night I met his mom, dad and grandmother that I already knew from clogging. The Poole grandparents were the best. I have missed Cay and Ronald so much, though some would say I don't deserve to share my memories but, there is more to that story. Love

“ I am so very sorry I never got to meet Ms. Cay. I just ran across RD's obituary in some files I had. 2000 was a different time. Where I got a loan phone call from Ms. Cay about my father's fate. Hope these angels are happy in the Lord's arms. - Melissa James - Grove

“ I remember when I met Cay for the first time. We were bowling in the church bowling league. We got to know and love her during that time. She was a sweet and caring lady, always taking time to help others. She will be missed. She has the ultimate healing now. She's in the presence of our Lord!!! We will see her again.

“ Cay, you and Ronald were the first to learn about our engagement, Ronny to me. You were our babysitter for Ronny II and Chris. I admired you and Ronald and tenderly loved both of you. I will miss you especially that beautiful smile. Loved calling you Aunt Cay Cay. Heaven is blessed with you. Love, Gail Ownbey
