“ Catherine was so strong in her faith,so loved the Lord and strived to do his will. She was such a strong women and helped me many times in my struggles in life. She so loved her children and was proud of each and every one of them. She taught me about flowers,how to be a better mother,about how to strengthen my own faith and how to laugh again! She was a good friend to me. I hope I was to her. We lost an angle and heaven gained one.
