“ I just want to say Charlene was truly an angel. I just spoke with her on the 16th and she was talking about her grand children and great grand children. She loved her family very much. Charlene was a very compassionate, loving and hard working person. She loved people. I just want to say when you are sorrowful and low, look again in your heart, and you shall see that in truth you are weeping for that which has been your delight Charlene. Rest in peace angel.

“ My heart breaks today for my Uncle Danny and Chuck, Kevin, and Chris. I don't even know what to say. I loved having talks with her when we would get together. She gave me lots of advice from cooking to me finally being brave enough to try wearing contacts again. I will miss those talks. I will treasure the recipes I have gotten from her thru the years. The best words I have now, are her own words that she posted on Facebook on Father's Day for they truly fit today... "Happy Fathers Day to my Hunny, Chuck, Kevin, Alex and Chris ( in the future).. I wouldn't change a thing because I am so BLESSED to have these wonderful caring men in my life." May you all keep her words in your heart, she truly loved you all, and you also are blessed that you had her in your lives.

Love you all,
Missy

“ Where to start, my childhood memories are all wrapped up with my across the street neighbors. Catherine, Wheel and Charlene you will always be special memories I will always cherish. There are so many stories I could share and my teenage years wouldn't have been the same without you and Danny and the rest of your family. May you rest in peace until I see you again and give Catherine a big hug from me.

“ The sun couldn't compete with the warmth of her smile nor the bells with her laughter. The kitchen was her passion as every meal or dessert was made from her heart with lots of love. Every stroke of her hand was of of wonder as she felt that God had given her such a gift of love and a family that filled her with pride and love. She will always be alive as we watch the rising and falling of the sun and see all her kids and grand kids share her warmth of love.

Love to all of her family, prayers of comfort may you all be blessed.
