Petey and I just got home from my precious Aunt Sara's funeral in Rossville last night and Charles's passing is the first thing I saw when I opened facebook! He was such a wonderful man. Whenever we lose a special person such as Charles, my Mama always reminds me how our loss is heaven's gain. There's another bright star in the sky. God's blessings on Tammy and Caleb and all the family.

“ I am so sorry for Bruce and Sharon and the rest of your family. I only met your brother one time and that was on Old Wauhatchie Pike when I was a teenager. I thought he was so handsome and cool. The memories, as a teenager, were good ones. May Jesus Christ bless him and his family.
