“ Chuck was the best neighbor anyone could ask for, and he was also a dear friend. Over the last ten years we have shared many fun times together. His whole family was very close and he was so proud of his children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren. His life experiences gave him endless material for truly entertaining stories. His unique humor was a joy to experience, and it never left him even in when he was in pain. We will miss him so much. Sincere condolences to the Bledsoe family.
