“ I have so many fun memories of Papaw I don't know where to begin...he always made me feel welcome. Any time I would come to a family event or visit his and Granny's house he would jump up to give me a big hug. The last time I saw him was when Granny passed and I wasn't sure if time had passed so much that he had forgotten me. He remembered me right away and gave me a big hug and told me how much he appreciated me being there...it was like no time had passed at all in that moment. On a funnier note I got to witness Blu, Jenn, Terry, Jon, and Josh give that poor man a hard time but he always had fun with the jokes and had a smile on his face. I remember the time Blu and I stopped by to visit with Granny, and Papaw must have been sleeping, but he walked out in the hall in just his undies and Granny shout's "Charles!" in her high pitch "Bryn's here get back in your room"...we all laughed until we cried. I also remember the time he was in the hospital and they finally had to put this net cage around his hospital bed because he kept getting up to take the bathroom sink apart. I guess what I will always remember is moments spent with the family were always more fun when Papaw was around and I'm deeply saddened to say goodbye but grateful for a God that allows us to say this is not the end it is the beginning; while we say goodbye Blu, Mark, Jimmy, Granny, Mamaw, and our Heavenly Father say hello.
