“ Charlie would always tell me a joke to brighten my day when I wasn't at my best. The fund memories of the years we spent together in water aerobics. Most of all I will never ever forget the many visits he and Delores made to my home to help me after the passing of my dad and sister. I will miss you Charlie with your warm smile and your naughty jokes but we shall me again my friend. Letitia

“ I miss you Charlie and your contagious laugh & smile! I have had you on my mind for a while and been meaning to call. I'm sorry I delayed. I have great memories of times spent together as a kid growing up in the Jones family and hanging out some with Charlie. I especially recall a time I was able to spend a night or two with Charlie and Delores and all the cool stuff he let me get into. (He did keep me out of trouble) We worked hard in the yard and garden and then we played Monopoly late into the night around their kitchen table. I will always be thankful that he was such a caring and loving Uncle (cousin really) and how he would always ask about me during 22 years away in the Air Force. He would always want to know how I was doing and what I was up to. After I retired from the USAF and moved up to Ringgold Georgia, he would often stop by my work just to say hello and tell a few jokes. He cared for my family and when we recently moved back home to Chattanooga from Alaska, he brought over gifts for the kiddos to play with. He was a man that genuinely cared and wasn't afraid to show it. Thanks for everything Charlie, I am excited to see you again one day soon. Love ya!

“ Rest in peace, Charlie. I met Charlie in the water aerobics class at the South Chattanooga Recreation center. We became friends and loved to cut up in the pool. On days I was the teacher, Charlie said he and more men would come because my man boobs and belly were worse than his. Boy, we had fun and lot of laughs. Charlie was a man who loved his family. He worked hard in the military and at the railroad shops in high noise environments.. It cost him much of his hearing. God speed.
