“ Whenever I saw the truck parked behind Walgreens I knew there was some wonderful fresh produce for sale. The sweet man would pick out the best tomatoes for me. He was usually in the process of eating one :) Sometimes I left extra money but, if I was short, he gave them to me for whatever I had. I just saw the flowers today and was filled with sadness. I'm very sorry for the family's loss.

“ CHARLIE was a sweet and nice old man. I meet him a long time ago when he use to sell fruit out of his blue pick up truck. My kids loved getting apples from him. It's sad to hear your gone but glad to know your in a better place. Rest in peace Charles Roden remember you were loved by many and forgotten by none.

“ Uncle Charles. I will miss you. You were funny and loved to joke around. I remember thinking when I was a little girl that I was named after you because both our initials CDR. I love you. You held a special place in my heart. When I wanted to talk about something serious you would always say why and make a joke. Even though I might have gotten mad, I wasn't mad for long because you would tell a joke. I love you and you are surely missed. Cindy
