“ Charles is my Uncle. One of my favorites. He treated me like his own. So many great memories of my uncle and my aunt and cousins, .. we traveled to Louisiana and to Wisconsin where they lived for Thanksgiving dinner.. I already missed him. But now it will be even more.. rest in peace Uncle Charlie. I love you forever

“ Deb, Sherry, Melissa, Shawn and family, I don't have as many memories as I wish I did, but I'll never forget our family vacations to wherever you guys lived at the time, his manicured nails, his perfect black hair and his pleasant demeanor. My thoughts prayers and love are with you all!! Love Billie

The first friend of mine in 1957 when we moved from Phillipsburg to Rolling Stone. He delivered the news paper and we would sit on our bikes in the driveway for like hours talking till we became a little closer, I was his date for his graduation.
