MR

“ Charles was a true, dedicated servant of God. He possessed a wealth of knowledge and understanding of the Scriptures; never in his life did he deviate from following God's word. Charles and his wife and son were the pastoral family to my Great Aunt and Uncle Ford and they lovingly came into the lives of my mother and I. Rev. Vandergriff demonstrated the forgiveness of Christ in his daily walk; he honored the Lord's Day and provided for his family. Charles is sitting at the feet of God now, waiting to be joined by his precious Victor and Carole, and those of us who have been supremely blessed to have known him on earth.
