“ Sending our condolences to Donna and the family. Charles graduated with me and my husband 1956 from SHS. He was my escort for Homecoming queen. My husband played football and he would only let Charles escort me. Charles was a gentleman and everybody loved him. I am so sorry. Sending hugs and prayers.

“ Although I never had the pleasure of meeting Mr. Young, I see his legacy through Rob and his grandsons. Rob spoke highly of his father and his walk with the Lord. Thankful that we have the hope of Heaven and will see our loved ones again. Prayers for the Young family and loved ones.

“ Chuck Young was a good man who loved the Lord, loved his precious Donna and family, loved his church family , choir family, Atlanta Braves and his GT Yellowjackets. I enjoyed knowing Chuck and singing with him in the FBC Choir years ago along with another legend Wayne Scott. Chuck was easy to talk to and a good listener. Like so many sweet people at FBC Chickamauga he was welcoming and warm....and you just knew he really cared about you. Donna the Hankins' loved Chuck and we love you very much.
