

Chega Crystal Tamar Silvano-Roach

September 23, 1976 - September 21, 2025

Chega Crystal Tamar Silvano-Roach, known affectionately as Chrystal, passed away on September 21, 2025, in Rossville, Georgia. She was born on September 23, 1976, in Chattanooga, Tennessee and throughout her life, she touched many hearts. Chrystal graduated from Ridgeland High School in 1994 and furthered her education at Dalton State and Chattanooga State Community College, where she earned her Certified Nursing Assistant certification.

In addition to her work as a CNA, Chrystal was the owner of Bioclean Cleaning Services, a venture that showcased her entrepreneurial spirit. She had a passion for cooking, enjoyed walking her beloved dog Bear, and cherished spending time with her family. Chrystal was known for her deep compassion, always putting the needs of others before her own, a quality that was evident in her dedication to caring for one of her sisters in her final days. Chrystal was preceded in death by her daughter Ashley Boyd and her parents. She leaves behind her loving husband of 23 years, Herbert Andrew Roach Jr., and their four daughters: Amber, Scar, Bryanna, and Zoey. She is also survived by her sisters Bonnie, Charlie, and Darla, in addition to numerous close relatives and her cherished dog, Bear.

A celebration of Chrystal's life will be held on October 17, 2025 at 5:00 PM at Gilbert Stephenson Park, GA. Guests are invited to bring food for a potluck as a tribute to her love for cooking and communal gatherings. Online register
