“ The passing of our close friend & family member of my husband (Tanner Smith) has broken our hearts & made us realise how precious life is more then ever before! Not only did we loose one of our best friends.. But she was more then just a friend.. More then family! Tanner & I lost our hang out buddy, our person to talk to when we were mad about something or upset, our person who didnt ever judge us & saw things from both sides when we were having an argument, our marriage counselor even at times(lol😭).. She was even our room mate at one time.. She took us in when we needed a break from home.. She may not of had children of her own but she took in several people & treated them like her kids! She was that special once in a life time person & there will NEVER be anyone who could even begin to replace her! We saw this woman on a daily basis for a very long time! I have known her for 6yrs since Tanner & I first met! We could walk in her house without calling or even knocking & she would happily welcome us in.. She would always say "howdy ho neighbor!" when we walked thru her door! I will miss those words so so much.. 😭 I havent ever lost someone so close to me & it really hurts.. My mind has been racing these last 2 days.. Thinking about all the memories with her.. The laughs.. The tears.. And even the fights we had about stupid things that we always moved on from.. We were with Chris the night her beloved dog Chew chew passed away in December 2018, just a few short months ago.. I remember sitting there with her & my husband holding Chew Chew as she passed.. Chris was upset but she didnt cry.. She held it together even though her eyes were read & puffy.. She was sad but she said how she was happy her momma could be with chew chew again & how she didnt worry because she would see them both again one day! We buried Chew Chew in her back yard that cold December night & after we had finished she told Tanner & I how much she loved & cared about us & how thankful she was to have us as friends! I will never forget it & im so thankful for that night & every other day we had with her! Chris we will always love u & think very highly of u! We will always talk about u & remember all the good times we had with you! U were one hell of a friend & a very kind person! We are going to miss *you terribly & think of you everyday for the rest of our lives! U left a big impact on both of our lives & we will carry u close to our hearts always.. You were a very special person & friend to us! Thank you for all the laughs & memories, we will forever cherish them!

Rest easy my friend, save us a seat in heaven & watch over us! 😊
We loved you on earth & now we love u to heaven & back!*
