“ My sweet big brother, I am missing you extra today. I keep thinking about the very last text you sent me. "No matter what happens, I love you and I'm proud of you." We fought like cats and dogs, but we would have killed for one another. 5 months has almost come and gone but you still cross my mind daily. I miss you. I love you. I will see you again. Love always, Nay

“ I could not have asked for a better father figure for my kids as they were growing up. You stepped up and took my kids in as your own and we were so blessed and lucky to have you while we did. They will always know you as their father and their best friend. Twenty six years we've known each other. Our journey started at LFO as friends and grew so much more from there. We had our secrets and our jokes, rather appropriate or not, but it was just us.. We were in our own little world that no one knew about. There will not be a day that I won't think about you. I love you Chris. We all love you and we miss you so much.

“ Chris was a wonderful man and a caring person to me always has been Just a few weeks ago he came to my house to help get me in bed
The last text I got from him was may 3 checking to see if I needed anything which I didn't but he said he would be home all weekend if I needed him
And to stay strong and that he loved me
I love you Chris and will always love you and keep your memory alive
