Chris was a good man. Hate to see his life ended so soon, a reminder that we are not promised our next breath. Will be praying for everyone.

“ There are so many memories, too many to mention. Chris was a very special person and will always hold a very special place in my heart. He and I shared many special moments together throughout the years, including our wedding, the birth of our son, and Christmas memories with our grandson. We also faced the loss of dear friends and family members as well as other life challenges throughout the years, and although our marriage had ended, we remained "family". He was a good friend to many people and would never hesitate to help someone in need. He was a cheerful giver with a big heart. He left us much too soon, but I believe he is now with our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. I will miss him dearly. ❤️
