“ Today marks one year since your passing. People tell me that time takes away the pain and things become easier; they are right to a certain extent in that I don't break down near as much as I used to but they are wrong about the rest. Though I don't break down as much; there's not one day that goes by that I don't think of you and wish you were here. I miss you so very much and my heart aches not having you with me. You would be so proud of your baby girl and the things she has accomplished. I hope I am doing right by you and continue to do so. I will always love you. Until we meet again, your loving husband Steve. ”
