Eugene was one of the kindest guys I ever knew. What a gentle, loving soul, and what a blessing it was to me that I knew him during his time on this earth. Rest in eternal peace, my friend, and I'll see you when I get there.

My sincerest condolences to his family, may God give you the strength to endure in this difficult time.

“ Oh honey. I miss you so much. I would have breathed for you forever if I knew it would have worked. I would have have you my liver,my kidneys, my heart if I knew it would have kept you here with us. I miss you so much that it hurts. My heart will forever be broken. The house is not a home anymore without you here. I am not me without you. I am walking around numb and in a daze. I love you so much. To the moon and back and back again til death do us part and way beyond the afterlife. Rest in Peace sweet husband of mine. I will see you again soon. Remember our agreement" if you get there before I do, please wait for me." Life does not work without you here. I love and miss you so much.

Denise, words can't express how sorry I am. I know you loved him so much, my heart breaks for you and the family. I wanted you to know that I'm praying for you and the family. When my brother called and told me he had passed my heart sank. Contrary to how I fit into the equation I still think the world of you and Eugene's family. Also I have some pictures of him alone you may want, hit me up on Facebook when you get to feeling like it and I will bring them to you. Love you girl, if you need anything and I can help let me know. Take care.

“ Dearest Denise, and family. Tim and I send our warmest sympathies to you all. As you journaled Clarence’s illness each day, we got to know Clarence for his will power, his strength, his courage and his deep love for his family. Through it all you both persevered through the good days and the very bad days. Neither of you ever gave up, never gave in. What a tribute to both of you and the love and friendship you had for each other. I wish this pain was not there for you, but you will have to journey through it. Your children will have to journey through it also. And your strength will prevail again. You will lean on each other and the family and friends will gather around you like angels and help you through this terrible tragedy. Please know that I am here and I see you. My heart is with your heart. Cry when you need to. Miss him because he would have it no other way. And love him just like you always have. Good night sweet Clarence. Sleep tight, and know that you are eternally loved and missed. Much love, Your Michigan mom.

“ Clarence was such a blessing. He was a very strong and loving family man and he and his family would give the shirt off their backs for anyone if they needed. He will forever live in his children. My heart and prayers are with his family as everyone that knew him, whether briefly or a lifetime, will never forget his legacy in every life he touched.
