“ Stretch and I played football and basketball at TCHS. We had many good times from Junior High to High School. Hadn't seen him since the 82 class reunion. I was deeply saddened to hear today that he had passed away. My prayers are for the family and his mom. May God bless you during this time of loss. Jerry Sumner Class of 1972.

“ I was so saddened to hear of Stretch's passing tonight. He was always kind and friendly and he was one of the tallest guys in our graduating class. He could have easily been a bully because of his towering presence ...but was never that way. I remember him as always kind, athletic, and nice to all. So sorry for your loss and ours.
