“ Mammaw, I'm missing you more than you ever know. It's so hard not getting to see that sweet face of yours. I don't have any grandparents to guide me anymore. I feel lost without the three of you. Words cannot describe the pain I feel. It never gets easier. Never. Y'all are the reason I love looking at the sky. They have three beautiful souls up there ☐

“ Mammaw, it's so hard not having you here. You never got to experience me being a mother, and it breaks my heart to pieces. I am so sorry I didn't come see you as much as I wanted to before you passed. It eats me a live every day that I stopped coming around so much, I'd do anything in the world to sit with you one last time. I wish you could meet the babies, you have three handsome great grandchildren. I'd do anything to be able to hug you right about now. I miss you dearly, even more today on Mother's Day. I love you, Happy Heavenly Mother's Day, Mammaw. I miss you more than anyone will ever know.

“ Nanny,
I love you more than words can say and will miss you just as bad. You were always an independent strong wonderful woman that I've always looked up to. You were fun and sassy and nevermind to show it. If it wasn't for you I would never understand how Elvis could live on after death. It was only to show us how when you felt it was time for you. I know that many of the things that you helped instill in all of us will lead us to a wonderful and happy life. Love you nanny.
Forever your granddaughter,
Flossie Mae
