“ I have more memories of Ricky and myself than can be written here. We played years of music together, listened to ‘Firesign theater’, so much we knew it by heart. Rick taught me how to play guitar, I was blessed to know all his babies, Wife Brenda, and the entire Gilley family, they all made me feel like one of the family. We did do many crazy things like going on top of the mountain UFO hunting, sitting in the yard watching the sun come up together, playing guitar in dew soaked grass. Rode motorcycles together; suffered the loss of brothers in terrible accidents. He played at my wedding, made me Angels Godfather. Life was just not the same without Rick. Ill hurt forever Ricky, i’ll miss you forever. You were the best thing in my life, and it’ll never be the same without you. Love you so much bro’

“ So sorry for the loss of your dad. A difficult man at times but I know he was loved by all of you. He lived his life by his own rules, and an endless supply of jokes, some better than others. I know he will be missed by many.

“ My thoughts and prayers are extended to the family and friends of Clyde at this most difficult time. Words can not take away the pain that you all are feeling at this sad time but know there are people who care and are here for you to lean on. Amee, remember all the good times you had with your father and know he is no longer in any pain. Let me know if I can do anything.

“ I have more memories of Rick than this space will allow; maybe playing music with him, or listening to Firesign Theatre's album so much, that thirty years later we could still recite it word for word. Seeing the look on his face when Brenda told him she was having twins! Being with him when he lost his brother Tim, and he being with me, when I lost my brother. All the fun times with Rick and Brenda. A special memory of him playing guitar and singing the Beatles song "Because" at my wedding. I could go on for days and days, most every day of my late teens and twenties had Ricky in them. I will weep over you for many days to come, Rick. Thanks for being in my life.

“ So sorry to hear this sad news. Rick and I were best friends from 1st grade to High School. In Jr High I learned to play the drums behind Rick's steady guitar. We got into and out of trouble thousands of times together. We could walk from my house on North Avenue to his house blindfolded, we made that trek so often. Many years have since passed but I will always remember and cherish those times.
