“Jehovah invites you to throw all your burdens on him and he will sustain you in your time of grief.”

(2 Corinthians 4:18) "while we keep our eyes, not on the things seen, but on the things unseen. For the things seen are temporary, but the things unseen are everlasting."

KEEP YOUR EYES ON THE PRIZE

- 1. When eyes of blind ones see again
And ears of deaf ones hear again,
When deserts blossom as the rose
And from parched ground fresh water flows,
When lame ones leap just like the hart,
When loved ones never have to part,
Such blessed times you'll realize,
If you keep your eyes on the prize.*
- 2. When tongues of mute ones speak again,
When old ones will be young again,
When earth will yield her rich increase
And all good things will never cease,
When songs of children fill the air,
When joy and peace are ev'rywhere,
Then, too, you'll see the dead arise,
If you keep your eyes on the prize.*
- 3. When wolves and lambs will feed as one,
When bears and calves bask in the sun,
A mere young boy will lead them all,
And they will heed his childish call.
When tears belong to yesterday,
When fears and pain have passed away,
You'll see how God these things supplies,
If you keep your eyes on the prize.*

“ I extend my deepest condolences. I know your hearts are broken at this time. Please be comforted in knowing that God is close to the brokenhearted; he saves those who are crushed in spirit. (Psalms 34:18) Losing the ones we love was never a part of God's purpose for us. Especially one who's life was just beginning. May you be comforted also by learning about the arrangement our heavenly Father has made so that you can have your precious baby with you again. That hope is made possible by Jesus. (John5:28,29) Lean heavily on God at this time. Pray to him for strength to cope. Weep to him when words are few. Knowing all the time that he cares for you. (1 Peter 5:7)
