“ I have 56 yrs. of memories with Connie. The first time we met was at Scharf's grocery on Tennessee Ave. of course, she spoke to me first, being the outgoing person that she was. We were about 12 & 13 yrs old, but, we didn't really become friends until we started working together at Gayle's Drive Inn, & that's where I met Charlotte, the 3rd musketeer. We were supposed to have grown old together. Connie taught me how to drive a stick shift. She explained WHY you shifted gears at certain speeds. She quit a job because they wanted to fire me, saying "I'm just like her, so you can fire me too" and walked out! I ❤️ love you and miss you, Connie Jewell!!
