“ I am so sorry for your loss. My heart goes out to you in your time of sorrow. May you let God's Word comfort you when it reads, “If a man dies can he live again? ... You will call, and I myself shall answer you. You will long for the work of your hands.” {Job 14:14, 15}. God will have a longing to resurrect those who are in his memory.

“ To the children (my cousins),
Aunt Myrtle was very precious to me. I love her dearly. You were blessed to have a precious mother. Many times I spent the night with her and Uncle Roy; they treated me like I was one of their children. I have many wonderful memories of my time being at their home.

May God comfort you; be rest assured Aunt Myrtle is in the presence of her Lord now.

*I love each of you,
John Oxford (cousin)luyxa*
