

Curtis Miner

May 14, 2013

Curtis Wayne Miner, 70 of East Ridge departed this life Tuesday, May 14, 2013. He was born in Iowa to the late Don & Marion Miner. Curtis served in the United States Army and was a member of Frawley Baptist Church and the American Legion Post #95 in East Ridge, Tennessee.

Survivors include his wife, Marilyn Miner of East Ridge, step-daughters, Eva Grammar of Fort Oglethorpe, Robin Manus of East Ridge, Jean McLaughlin of Marietta, Roger Miner of Wisconsin, 3 grandchildren, several nieces and nephews.

A memorial service will be held at a later date. Arrangements are by W.L. Wilson & Sons Funeral Home-Fort Oglethorpe, Georgia.

Tribute Wall

ES

“ Love you, Papa. You're in Heaven now, and in no more pain. You have a new body and mind, and you are walking with Jesus. I'll see you again one day.

Eva Grammer - Ringgold, GA - stepdaughter - May 20, 2013 at 12:00 AM

RC

“ I brought a very special friend home to meet Papa Mom and Uncle Mike..Larry .Wilson and I had become very close friends and had fallen in love ...so larry wanted my families love and approval...Larry gathered his courage and stuck out his hand to papa and said my name is larry wilson and I would like your approval to see and maybe marry your beautiful daughter..papa said yes robin is a very pretty girl we love her very much Jeff,,But my name is Larrymy confused fiance sputtered,,well whend you change your name asked papa...thats my papa i love you/////

Robin Elizabeth Manus - chattanooga , TN - he was my Papa Curtis - May 19, 2013 at 12:00 AM