“ I am so sorry that I am just now finding out about Cyclinda. I lost touch with her after she came back home. I am the other Cyclinda. She was born 7 years after me and the name was given to her mother by the nurse in the hospital. The nurse was good friends with my mother and grandmother and had met me. I found her several years ago through Facebook and had the privilege of visiting her several times. My thoughts and prayers are with her family. I will miss not being able to see her.
Love and prayers,
