“ *My little angel,
I love you and miss you very much. I miss the chance that I wont see you grow up and run around. I miss the I love you mommy and the chance to see you grow up like your big brother. I miss you more than you ever know. I know you're looking down on us and I feel you with me all the time. I just wish you were here to be shown and know the love you have. You will always be my baby boy and Harley will always be your big brother and my big boy. You two are my life and you will always have a place in my heart. You are forever remembered and always with me. I love you my baby boy and my angel, Cyler.*
