She attended school at Chattanooga Valley and was a lifelong resident of the Chattanooga Valley community. She had unwavering faith in God and was a member of Chattanooga Valley Baptist Church. For decades Aileen was a Sunday School teacher, choir member and was very active in all aspects of her church and community. She sang in a trio for many years and she was also a member of the Chattanooga Valley Community Choir. After she became home bound, she hosted a Bible study in her home monthly for the High Point community. Music was a very important to Aileen and she was an inspiration to many over the years. Aileen worked as a florist for many years, a para pro in the school system for several years and also worked at Cutter Laboratory. She had a love for flowers and was proud of having over one hundred varieties of lilies. Many times, people would stop on the road to see her beautiful flowers in her yard. She was a loving person and gave of her time to several people over the years by taking care of them during their declining years until their death. She had many tragedies in her life, but never wavered in her faith in God to see her through. Along with her parents, she is preceded in death by her husbands: Grover Phillips, Chester Oliver, sons: Floyd Phillips, James (Jimmy) Phillips, great-grandson: Heath Phillips. She is survived by her sons: John Phillips of Flintstone, GA, Donald Oliver of Kensington, GA, daughter:

Barbara Oliver Autry of High Point, GA, brother: Herman Pitman, Jr., of Flintstone, GA, nine grandchildren, thirteen great-grandchildren, ten great-great-grandchildren, several nieces and nephews. The family will receive friends Saturday from 6:00 pm – 8:00 pm, Sunday from 3:00 pm – 7:00 pm and Monday morning prior to the service. Funeral services will be held at 2:00 pm – Monday – January 15, 2018 in the chapel with Pastor: Terry Burns officiating. Burial will follow in Lookout Cemetery. “ Barbara and family, I didn't get to know your sweet mom until she was at Parkside for a few weeks and I got to visit and talk to her. She was a very kind lady. I enjoyed the short time that I had with her and I know that she will be greatly missed but thank God we know she is with Jesus and her loved ones gone on before her and more imprtanly we know we can see her again! Until then may God give you peace and joy in remembering the good times.
