“ Trying to find the words at such a difficult time is so hard to do, so all we can do is just reflect back on all the good times that we have spent with you Dale...we will forever remember riding around with you looking for some yard sales or helping you out on some of your jobs and if nothing else just sitting around the big kitchen table listening while you made us laugh!!! We both know that we will see you again and we know that you are so happy being with your baby girl again!! Much love....Kirk and Rhonda

“ I never got to meet you, but I do feel I know you through your sister, Denise. I know you were very loved! And I know your mom and sister and brother will miss you very much! I pray that God wraps His arms around this family through the days ahead and that they know that though you are gone, the love and memories will never fade.

“ I last saw you when I came to visit Dee in Tampa, 1998.. She was a bit busy with work during the day so you and I would go to Clearwater Beach in that big box truck with no door lol you convinced me it was ok to sneak a beer there and I just agreed, even tho I knew it wasn't allowed. I'm so glad for all the good memories I have of you from living in Tampa and the one thing that I remember most is your big smile filled with mischief, I look back at the times you were around and I can't remember any bad ones, even tho I'm sure there was! I could go on and on about things I remember but I won't, I'm proud to have known you for the short few years that you were in our lives. Dee and all the family and friends, my heart goes out to you all.. I love you and my thoughts are not far.

“ We know that Dale did not pass from lack of love, that is for sure. Take comfort in knowing he is with Lexi.....and there is peace. Until you meet again, he is but a prayer away. xoxoxo
