“ Witt Olson was like a son to Us! While he lived in Texas he was a constant best bud to our Son... Witt was so funny, endearing, respectful & always up for a family adventure!!! A true Texan cowboy!!!

He grew up to be a hands on Dad, a sweep you off your feet husband. A helpful loving son & a faithful brother!!!! Witt it isn't goodbye... but reserve me a mansion on your street in heaven!! Hug my Papa...& don't worry your family is stronger because of you!!!! Go cloud surfing I know you need a few adventures & watching your loved ones behind the clouds!!

“ Far too young to leave his sweet family. Witt was such a joy to be around. He did love his wife and girls more than anyone you have ever met. He was a genuine gentleman. He will forever be missed and in our hearts. I love you son and love that you loved my any girl as you did. You made an impression on our hearts. Thank you for three beautiful grand babies. We promise to love and protect them as was your only job. The world is a better place because you were in it. I think if you daily. Love you...your mother in love
