“ David loved family and wanted to understand where we all fit in. He was such a loving guy!!

“ The years I grew up with David provided me the opportunity to know what real kindness, honesty and love for family really meant between siblings. Every day I work with students with whom remind me of David, and it is the shared life I had with him that has helped me be a better version of myself. I do not think I could ever look at a TV guide without thinking on him. He found such joy and passion for sitting cross-legged on his bed copying the TV Guide. I remember countless nights when I would go into his room, sit on his bed and ask him to tell me of the day's TV Guide entries and shows. I can name many great men who have walked this Earth, but I know that each one of them, besides Jesus Christ, could learn a thing or two from David, and not just about what is showing on TV.

I know he walks with Christ, and I will be with him again. I hurt deep in my heart that I have not been able to see him in person for many years, but rarely will a week go by without me thinking of him. Thank you David for the light you brought to my life.

I love you and miss you more than any words could say.
