“ My sincerest condolences. David was such a sweet person and seemed to always make me laugh. I quit school in the 9th but we were friends until then through school. We had homeroom together and sat close to each other in elementary due to our last names. He will forever be a wonderful part of my greatest memories. May you all have peace very soon. Letting go is so hard but remember- you are not letting go- it's just an intermission until you see him again. Much love.
