“ I will always cherish the fond memories that we shared and I know you are singing and dancing with the angels. Though we weren't ready for you to go I take comfort in knowing you are no longer in pain and that you were at peace and ready to meet the lord and he was ready to receive his son. I may not be your biological daughter but I know you loved me like I was and never treated me any different and I take pride in calling you my Dad. I can still hear you say, “Oh I love you too darling, I really do” I really love you too old man. I know you are watching over us from heaven until we are all together again. Fly High... we love you Dad. 🕊️

“ My dad is a kind giving man, always has been. When he gave his life to Jesus, he became even more of a giver. Shortly after he accepted Christ, He would come visit me and want to study the bible together- he said to me: “ You know some people say women can’t preach or teach the bible, but you sure can and I’m so happy hearing the word being preached, I would listen to a dog if he knew the bible and could teach it to me.”
