“ I met David, or “Mr. Nelms” as I liked to call him, (which he didn't like!), when I started working for Honest Charley 25 years ago. He was a caring, compassionate, fair, and humble man, with character and integrity. He was a witness through his faith in God. He was a friend and a mentor, and someone that I respected like a father. He will be missed by all who had the pleasure to know him. My thoughts and prayers go out to the Nelms family in your time of grief.

“ Linda and family, You all are in our thoughts and prayers today. I know David has fought a long courageous battle. So glad that he is no longer suffering, but is now at home with our Lord Jesus Christ. I can't imagine how hard this has been for you Linda. and know that the days ahead will not be easy, but our Father, the God of ALL Comfort does know....and HE understands your heartache and grief. I know you are aware of His loving arms around you NOW. We love you, sweet friend!
