“ Me and David Grew up in church together. Our moms were best friends. He played the Piano and I sung. David will be missed!! so glad We got to see each other again at a small church just like the one we grew up in. I know David Is rejoicing in the Lord with his mom!! David you will be missed love your friend, Connie

“ I knew David for many years and as I have read the other comments on here they say so much of what I knew to be true of David. He was a very special person and just such a gift to God's people. Never saw him without a smile. And though we lost touch several years ago, I thought of him often. Prayers for comfort for his family. David is now with his Mom and others who went before him. I know he and his mom are having such a grand reunion. Godspeed my friend until we meet again.

“ Our friendship was short as I just met David and Lisa this year. The memory of him will not be so short. He made such an impression on me in that short time with his smile, kindness, and larger than life personality. His happiness and excitement was catching. If you were having a bad day, that was gone when he walked in the door. That's what I will miss the most. His way of bringing happiness with him everywhere he went.

“ David was so talented. Every time I walk in my kitchen I will think of him and his beautiful work. I was blessed to have known him. His music was inspirational and so pleasant to listen too. I will miss him. He could always make you laugh. I'm so glad I got to meet him and enjoy our talks at church.
