“ Cathy, I cannot grasp the magnitude of your loss. I know that you and David had a wonderful marriage and that his loss will be very hard on you.

I appreciate the family memory photos and especially the motorcycle. I remember a motorcycle photo in your office and not really seeing you as a motorcycle lady. I am sorry I cannot express my sympathy in person.

“ Worked with David at Brock & Blevin back in the day. Really liked him and he was a good Godly man. Was my good luck seeing him at Walmart in Lafayette few months back. We had a good conversation and it made me think about the old days working together. Sorry to hear he passed away and will be praying for y'all.

I worked at Hutcheson with David. He was always such a joy when he came to the unit to repair, or fix whatever was wrong. He was always a joy, a pleasure to work with. I have over the last few years ran into him in Chickamauga. We sometimes would rehash old work memories. He was kind, loved his family so much. May you RIP / Will see you at that great Hutcheson reunion when we all get home.

“ My favorite picture of Daniel and his daddy! David was such a good dad and a wonderful father-in-law. He taught me so much in such a short time and loved me like his own child. I'm not sure what life will be like without him in it.
