Pam, Rita & Family. I am so very sorry for the loss of your mother and the sweet Mrs. Hunt. I will always remember Mrs. Hunt calling the office at Unum for Pam and how everyone always looked forward to speaking with her. Your entire family has been so very blessed to have her in your lives and what you have to look forward to is eternal life thanks to our sweet Lord and Savior. Please know my thoughts and prayers are with you all. Leslie & Harold Blackstock

“ Bobby and family,
I am so sorry to hear of the loss of your sweet Mamma. Perhaps loss isn't the right word to express this temporary interruption of the relationship. I heard that D.L. Moody on his deathbed called his entire family to his bedside and said..."in a short while there will be reports of my death, but don't you believe it....I will be more alive than I have ever been." So it is with your sweet Mamma! I am so glad that I got to meet her. Even more thrilled that I get to know her as she is known...When my mom passed away I read John 11 and the story of Lazarus and his resurrection by Jesus...prior to Jesus raising him from the dead we read the shortest verse in the Bible....Jesus wept... It never quite made sense to me because why weep if you already know that you are going to raise him from the dead?.... I think he most likely wept because he would have to bring Lazarus back... Your Mamma is home and more alive than any of us!

Love and prayers,
James Hall

“ I am very sorry to hear about Mrs. Hunt. I remember her very well as a teachers aide at Cedar Hill elementary school when I was a student there in the 1960's, all the kids loved her and thought the world of her. I saw her a few years ago and talked with her for a while. She remembered me after all these years! It was good to see her. May God bless her family during this very difficult time.-- Rickey Holcomb
