“ I am sorry to hear about Dean. I talked to him in July and he was missing Ruth so much. We had a great conversation that day and as always throughout the years. He is finally home with Ruth and Joel. Just as he wished. You were blessed with the best parents.

“ Dean hired me as an announcer at WMBW right after the station began broadcasting in the early '70s. My career soon led in a different direction, into visuals rather than sound, but Dean and I worked together on many projects over the years. He was a faithful friend. I know he didn't want to hang around here after Ruth left, and now they are reunited in the presence of the Lord, enjoying the fruits of lives well-lived.

“ Nearly four months to the day, of your mom's home going, I now write this for your dad. I knew he missed her!

It was a privilege to work under him at WMBW, back in 1983-84. But your folks had befriended David & me even before we were married in '80. Your mom had been my secret sister at DPBC and had written such encouraging words before our marriage. Then, when WMBW was needing a receptionist, she encouraged me to apply for the position. Many memories there, of your folks, people from Chicago, and the many Christians from this area that I met there, when WMBW was up in the old bank building.

I just remember how you dad loved you boys so much! I'd seen him stop what he was doing so he could go help one of you, or come back w/ proud stories of what you, or grand daughters had accomplished! They felt so blessed the Lord had brought you both to them!

I hadn't seen them for some time and the Lord seemed to impress on me back in March of this year, to drive out to for a visit. They were so surprised to see me, and greeted me with big hugs. They were both feeling and looking so well that day. We sat and visited for a very long time, recalling old time and folk we'd known. It was a special time, I will cherish always. We prayed together before I left, rejoicing in our Lord's soon return~that blessed Hope!

The coming months for you will be empty, in that you'll wish you could just make a phone call and ask a question, only they would know, or sit & talk with them; those of us who have laid parents to rest know that feeling. The thought of them now untouched by age or illness and in the presence of their Lord is a blest thought. He will keep & uphold you till we all meet again.

I know they desired this verse for all of you: "I have no greater joy than to hear that my children are walking in the truth." 3 John 1:4

My husband David, texted me yesterday, "Sippel family reunion today!" He remembers your dad singing the song, "Finally Home"

“ Bruce and family,
Our hearts are heavy and very sad at the loss of your dad, Dean. He was a special friend of ours, as you know. Many years of happy memories we made with our families. His constant example of Christ living in him, teaching others of Christ, working at the different Moody stations sharing the Gospel of Christ over the air ways. Taking over Joel's business when he was killed, working diligently at that new adventure. Most of all caring for Ruth until her passing. They were such a perfect team; it is only fitting that he join her in heaven to continue that teamwork. We will be praying for you Bruce as you adjust to yet another loss this year. May God surround and shower you with his Love.

“ Your dad changed the course of our lives when he hired me - 'a green and wet behind the ears' student who then continued with Moody for more than 30 years after his taking a chance with me. Fond memories always.....and sincere condolences to you.

“ I remember Dean and Ruth Dean was a familiar voice o WMBW radio and often spoke at banquets and at Duncan Park, his wife Ruth was my Sunday School teacher at Duncan Park Baptist church. Their boys went to school with some of my children and their granddaughters went to school with two of my youngest children. Remembering Dean with fond memories of a good Christian man.
