“ I remember the feeling of being part of the family. I would come and go to her moms house. Little girls playing little girl games. Playing in the yard, spending the night at each others home. Not having much....but feeling like we had the world. Rest now Debbie.

“ I just wanna light a candle for Ms. Campbell. She was my kindergarten teacher and she always made my day brighter. When I first started Kindergarten I was very sensitive and every time I cried and got upset she would always find a way to make me smile.

Kathy, Blakely, Hal, and the rest of the family, I'm so sorry to hear of Debbie's passing. We no sooner buried Lynn that you have to go through this again. I know she is out of pain now and we will forever miss her. All my love to the family. Rest in peace Debbie until we all meet again in Heaven.
