Mrs. Deborah Mannis 46 of Chickamauga passed April 3, 2017. She was a lifelong resident of Chickamauga and was of the Baptist faith. She was always putting others needs before her own and would give you the shirt off of her back. She is preceded in death by her parents; Claude and Iva Jean Herron, brother; Michael Wayne Herron, sister; Barbara Jean Shirley. Survivors include her loving husband David Mannis, children; Brittaney Michelle Mannis, Michael Allen Mannis, Brandon Tyler Mannis and Johnathan Mannis, brother Joseph Lee Herron, grandchildren Brayden Alexander Mannis and Jayden Christopher Swann and a very special friend Tina Swann. The family would like to thank everyone for the kind words and prayers during this difficult time. Online guest book at www.wilsonfuneralhome.com. Arrangements by W. L. she woke up different.

Close with friends, to figure out who was with her, make her, or walking down the middle because there didn't have the gas to pick a side. She was done with everything that didn't bring her peace.
She realized that opinions were a dime a dozen, validation was for nothing, and loyalty wasn't a word but a lifestyle.
It was this day that her life changed, And not because of a man or a job but because she realized that life is way too short to leave the key to your happiness

“ Rip debbie. Ill miss you. You were my favorite cousin ”

MM

“ Mom,
The day you died I kissed your face four times After you died I held you close to me
I knew it would be the last time I held you for the rest of my life
You were so sick, in so much pain
That is no life
I know you were afraid to die
I hope you have found comfort Do you remember how I held your hand and lay my head on your shoulder
Even at that moment I couldn't imagine life without you People talk about broken hearts in songs or movies Until that moment I had never known a true broken heart Over and over I thought "How can I live without you?"
I watched you live, I watch you die Every day I look up at the sky
I know you're waiting for me
I miss you
