“ I stepped out on my front porch last night with my barefeet and thought about Debbie taking Rick , Philip and myself to the red food store in her blue 60s falcon , she would run in with her barefeet , those were also the days when u could smoke in a grocery store . I thought about all those summers of Debbie and my mom cheering us on at the ballfield in the summer , she was always a mother first , a true southern lady who believed in family first , she was a very selfless lady , she would cook for us in the summer and make enough to feed us and the neighborhood , she enjoyed sitting back and watching us eat , she always put others before herself , Rick and Philip were always her babies no matter there age , she was soo proud of them , she told me about Ricks truck breaking down on his way to a school program for Riley , she said he walked the rest of the way to make it for his boy , she told me about being at church one morning and turned around and saw Rick sitting behind her , that really made her proud . She told me about Philip coaching his boys in ball and running a business at the same time , for her it was always her boys , past few years she came to know our lord , she loved her church family and even more important loved her savior ! To my brothers Rick and Philip i will always have these simple precious memories that's what's more important , I thank the lord for putting the your family in my life , one day we will all be together with Debbie praising our lord . God bless , your brother , Michael
