May 14, 1956 - May 31, 2026

Debra Sue Reed, of Rossville, Georgia, passed away peacefully at home on Sunday, May 31, 2026, at 7:14 a.m., surrounded by the love of her family. She was 70 years old.

Born on May 14, 1956, in Chatsworth, Georgia, Debra spent her early years growing up in Chattanooga, Tennessee. She carried with her a deep love for family, home, and caring for the people and animals she loved throughout her life.

She was a devoted homemaker, an incredible wife, a loving mother, and a proud Nana. She had a nurturing spirit and a heart that naturally put others before herself. Debra was known for her kindness, compassion, and selflessness, and for the way she made everyone around her feel welcomed, cared for, and loved.

More than anything, Debra loved her family. She shared a beautiful and devoted bond with her husband and created a home filled with love, comfort, and warmth. She treasured her children and found so much joy in being Nana. Her family was always at the center of her heart and her greatest joy in life. Debra also had a deep love for flowers and nature. She especially loved her magnolia tree and often picked blooms to bring inside the home. She loved the beauty and fragrance of gardenias, magnolias, and roses.

Debra had a special love for animals, especially her beloved dog, Arlo, and her cats, who were such an important part of her everyday life. She found joy in life's simple and meaningful moments, crocheting beautiful handmade pieces for the people she loved, cooking for family, reading books, planting flowers and spending time in her garden, and ending the day with a good horror movie.

Debra was preceded in death by her parents, Myrtle Rosine Copeland and Marion "Bud" James Copeland, and her great-niece, Audrey Rosine Copeland.

She is survived by her loving husband, Randall Newell Reed; her daughter, Felicia Nicole Blair; her son, Shawn Nicholas Hoskins; and her beloved grandson, Camden Quaid Hoskins. She also leaves behind family and friends who loved her deeply and will cherish her memory always.

Debra will be remembered for her warmth, her generous heart, her unwavering devotion to her family, and the quiet, steady love she gave so freely every day. Her kindness and the love she poured into the lives around her will continue to be felt by all who knew and loved her.
