“ Uncle Delbert, You will be so missed here. I don't think there was ever one person that you didn't leave a lasting impression on. Your smiles and your fun loving heart was one of the best I've ever known. I do know however that Heaven has gotten a little bit sweeter and a whole lot brighter...I just know you have been finding quarters behind all of the angles ear's and poking fun at all your loved ones that got there before you. I was blessed to have you for an uncle and I thank God for the gift of you. Rest in peace uncle Delbert...Until we meet again.

You are at home with Granny Mae, Otis
Lee, Ruth and others. Earth for now is a sadder place but heaven is a brighter place with your on going. Your gentle laugh and smile and lovely care. Well always be in our thoughts .

“ Even though he was a cousin I looked at him as a uncle. He was always joking and picking at you in love. I will miss him. God is in control and I know he is in heaven. The Bible says we have a appointed time to die. Uncle Delbert is where we are striving to be. In this time I pray God sends peace and comfort to the family. Just know I will be there if you need me. I love you guys.

“ We were neighbors, but over the years, Delbert was always the one willing to lend a helping hand and ask for nothing in return. He will be missed so much. Thank you for all your service to the entire Chattanooga Valley community, he served the entire Valley from the Lions club to the fire department, going without sleep many nights when the bell rang. Rest in peace my neighbor, but as for most "My FRIEND"

“ I also spent a lot of time at the Fouts home Jeanie and I would pick on the boys and they would get into trouble. Always plenty to eat and chores to do. Always felt loved.

“ As a young child, I spent as much time at Delbert's house as I did at mine. He was a loving father, but it didn't matter whose kid you were, you knew that you had to tow the line at the Fouts' house. As an adult, my fear of Delbert grew into a healthy respect for a good man. Delbert always had a smile and was quick with a needle for anybody, no one was immune. You will be greatly missed.
