I had the fortune to grow up with Denny, Allen, and Jane on Durgin Hollow Road outside Chickamauga. He was a wonderful person, talented musician, and as funny as he could be. So sad to hear of Denny's passing, he will be missed.

“ We have such wonderful memories of Denny! I will never forget Denny's tale of being haunted by a Confederate soldier on Snodgrass Hill in Chickamauga Park, as well as the many other stories he would relate to those who were lucky enough to be his friends. Our condolences to the family. Rest in peace, Denny. You were truly one of a kind and will be missed.
