“ Dewey was such a sweet person he used to sit in the break room and tell me stories and I could not help but listen he drew you in with his smile that would light up a room. He was such a blessing to me because when I first started working at Walmart I lost my grandfather and he filled that void in my life he really helped me get through it wether he knew it or not. When he got sick to the point that he could not come back to work I missed him dearly. I know he is in a better place but I was so blessed to have been touched by his life while he was here.
