“ Mr Carpenter was a good customer but moreover he was a dear friend. I will certainly miss him. My sympathy goes out for your family. He loved you very, very much. I am sure he is in Heaven now enjoying a new time with The Lord. He was a fine Christian man. Please know that I will remember and think of him often and I'll be praying for you all.

Wayne and Norma are a perfect example of lives lived for Christ and of devotion to each other. We enjoyed visiting in their home and in Parkside, and enjoyed having them in Sunday School. Norma, we are sorry we are not in town during this time of Wayne's home-going, but will plan to see you soon, Lord willing.
