“ Donna was more than a friend to me. We laughed together, cried a few tears at times together. We loved browsing around at antique shops together. Only wish we had lived closer. I will carry sweet Donna in my heart always. Never to be forgotten.

Our families spent many fun times together when we were kids. She was a couple of years older but we had great times playing games & just hanging out. Loved those times. Sweet memories.

“ I worked with Donna at Jackson Realty in LaFayette in the late 90's. She was a joy to work with and so glad to call her my friend. Heaven gained a very special angel on Wednesday. She will enjoy her heavenly home and all who dwell there will be so glad to welcome her home. Love and miss you already Donna!

“ Ms. Donna was such a precious lady and I loved her dearly. No matter how she felt she always seemed to give a smile and laugh. I remember the last home visit we had with her you could tell that she really felt bad, but still summoned all the strength she had to laugh with us and make us feel right at home during our visit. She will be missed by every person whose life she touched on this earth.
